Moderato

Come, dear, and don't let our faith weak - Two bab-bling brooks with sour-ces wind -

a tempo

rit. mf

-en, Let's keep our love fires burn-ing bright
-ing, Will meet be-fore they reach the sea

Your love for me is hea-vnly bea- - con, Guid-ing me Two moun-tain trails with cour-ses grind - - ing, Will cross be - through love's dark-est night. Don't start mind-ing

-fore they reach the lea, Two hearts yearn-ing or fault find - ing, No mat - ter how dark one's path may grow ——— They'll love lights burn - ing Just like babbling brooks and moun-tain trails ———

Fate won't hur - ry, well, don't wor - ry, We'll just keep our hearts a - glow.
meet - to - geth - er on life's heath - er, It's a rule that nev - er fails.

REFRAIN

Love will find a way ——— Though skies now are gray ——— Love like ours can nev - er be ruled.

Cu - pid's not schooled that way.

Dry each tear - dimmed eye — Clouds will soon roll by — Though fate may lead us a - stray — My dear - ie, mark what I say — Love will find a way. way.

NEW YORK

When I see an old homestead rare
That was heaven on earth to me,
It was plain and so humble, yet so august With that spot where I long to be.

In a little house on a little street,
In a little town near by,
Where the roses climb o'er the garden wall
And you hear the robin's cry:
Where peace and rest make life seem bliss,
When I'm weary how I sigh
For that little house on a little street
In a little town near by.

In fancy I see the old fireplace
And you, mother mine, sitting there,
As the glow from the embers enlighten'd your face
When you sat in your rocking chair.

Amy Ashmore Clark,

And you hear the rob- in's cry: Where peace and rest make life seem bliss, when I'm wear- y how I sigh For that lit- tle house on a lit- tle street In a lit- tle town near by.
